College of Education, Criminal Justice, and Human Services
About CECH
CECH’s Mission

The College of Education, Criminal Justice, and Human Services (CECH) is committed to the pursuit of discovery and excellence in research, teaching, and service that addresses real world challenges and opportunities to create positive social change. We prepare students to maximize their ability to have a positive impact and to be contributing members to society. To this end, we embrace five key values:

- Innovation: exploring, discovering, and implementing new ideas, methods, and applications
- Partnership: seeking out opportunities for partnership in our academic, research, and community pursuits
- Diversity: embracing and celebrating variation in styles, cultures, and disciplines
- Leadership: leading through research and by empowering individuals, communities, and organizations to evolve and facilitate change through best practices
- Support: providing an environment where faculty, staff, and students thrive
